HORSE GUARDS, 4th November, 1839.

*Memorandum for the Guidance of Officers commanding Regiments

The practice, which has recently prevailed, of transmitting Letters and Returns by the overland Mail viâ Marseilles, being found to create a very considerable expense to the Public, is hereby strictly forbidden; and no communication is to be transmitted by the above route, except from the General Officers commanding, and then only in cases of emergency and such as require dispatch.

In transmitting Returns and Official Communications to the several Military Departments (as directed by the General Regulations and Orders of the Army), Commanding Officers are to cause the words viâ Falmouth to be superscribed on the covers; and they are enjoined to prevent any Letters of a private nature, or not intended for the Departments, being inclosed under official covers.

By Command of the Right Honorable
General Lord HILL, G.C.B.
General Commanding in Chief.
JOHN MACDONALD, A.G.

CIRCULAR. No. 854.

A very considerable and unnecessary Expense of Postage having been recently incurred by the transmission of Accounts and Returns and other Documents by the overland Mail from India, owing to their having been forwarded viâ Marseilles, I am directed to inform you that all Packets for this Department, which are sent by overland Mails, are to be directed viâ Falmouth, and that no Letters whatever are to be forwarded viâ Marseilles, except such as relate to cases of emergency and require the earliest dispatch.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Officer Commanding

CIRCULAR.

HORSE GUARDS, 4th November, 1839.

Memorandum for the Guidance of Officers commanding Regiments in India, Ceylon, &c.

The practice, which has recently prevailed, of transmitting Letters and Returns by the overland Mail viâ Marseilles, being found to create a very considerable expense to the Public, is hereby strictly forbidden; and no communication is to be transmitted by the above route, except from the General Officers commanding, and then only in cases of emergency and such as require dispatch.

In transmitting Returns and Official Communications to the several Military Departments (as directed by the General Regulations and Orders of the Army), Commanding Officers are to cause the words viâ Falmouth to be superscribed on the covers; and they are enjoined to prevent any Letters of a private nature, or not intended for the Departments, being inclosed under official covers.

By Command of the Right Honorable
General Lord HILL, G.C.B.
General Commanding in Chief.
JOHN MACDONALD, A.G.

CIRCULAR. No. 854.

WAR OFFICE, 16th November, 1839.

SIR,

A very considerable and unnecessary Expense of Postage having been recently incurred by the transmission of Accounts and Returns and other Documents by the overland Mail from India, owing to their having been forwarded viâ Marseilles, I am directed to inform you that all Packets for this Department, which are sent by overland Mails, are to be directed viâ Falmouth, and that no Letters whatever are to be forwarded viâ Marseilles, except such as relate to cases of emergency and require the earliest dispatch.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Officer Commanding
Regt. of

Your most obedient humble Servant,
L. SULIVAN.
